Scope of Verification

Electronic verification refers to a broad category of online tools that we can use to determine whether the information we see in educational documents is accurate. Even from the comfort of your home office.
What are you even verifying?

- Whether someone actually graduated and received a degree
- Whether someone actually earned the credits and grades that they claim

What other information could you verify online?
Types of Tools

Results checkers, graduation lists, professional license databases, national diploma authentication, thesis repositories, QR codes, transcript verification, digital access of documents, public datasets, and more

Can you think of any types I omitted?
Where do you even find this type of tool?

Tied to every type of educational institution, at every level of education, including national, in all parts of the world, covering a range of time periods.

Often, the documents offer clues.

The best tools have good breadth (national!) and/or depth (highly detailed or going far back in time).
When should you use online verification tools?

Many people think that online verification tools are used to combat fraud. But that is only part of it. They can also provide reassurance. Don’t you feel better about a student when you have confirmed their documents are authentic?

The best practice is to use a given tool in all relevant cases, not just when there is suspicion.
Things to think about...

What personal identifiers are you able to use to verify the data? Name? Date of birth? What else? National ID numbers?

What do you do with the information? Upload a printout or screenshot? Add metadata? Waive documentation requirements? Proceed with confidence?

It is a good idea to have an institutional policy or philosophy on how to deal with electronically verified data/documents, before you start relying on them.

TAICEP Resources

The Resources for Members Committee, Professional Development and Training Committee, and Digital Student Data Committee have created some great tools for TAICEP members that help with verification.
The Resources for Members Committee (RMC) has identified resources that would be useful for TAICEP members, including:

- TAICEP Talk Newsletter

- Verification Sources for Educational Documents database
Relevant topics include:

- Challenges as a result of Coronavirus (such as admissions/equivalency w/o leaving examinations)
- Digitized student records worldwide
- Building a resource library (samples, verification, etc)
- Establishing new policies
- Remote work
- Refugee qualifications
- Educational system updates
VERIFICATION SOURCES FOR EDUCATIONAL DOCUMENTS

Please find this exciting feature that allows you to verify the authenticity of documents submitted for evaluation. It will help in our fight against fraudulent documents while preserving the integrity of all parts involved, the institutions issuing the documents, the agencies conducting the evaluations, and the institutions receiving the evaluations. TAICEP is very proud of offering this unique feature exclusively to its members! Many thanks to Dr. Lou Nunes and her Resources for Members Committee for bringing the project to fruition.

Updates: With a database this large featuring this type of information, the data will surely change over time. We appreciate your help in keeping the database current by contacting: Christopher Adams, adamscmr@iu.edu.

Instructions:
1. By default, the search function uses “OR” logic (e.g. Country OR Level OR Institution). This will show all records that have the ANY of the conditions entered. You can search using “OR” logic (e.g. Country OR Level OR Institution) by leaving the “Find all conditions” checkbox unchecked.

Search using “AND” logic (e.g. Country AND Level AND Institution) by checking the “Find all conditions” checkbox. This option will show only records that have ALL the conditions in one record. Example: To see only Brazilian secondary records, type in Brazil (Country) and Secondary (Level) and check the Find All Conditions checkbox. Note this would also include Brazilian post secondary credentials, as the word “secondary” is still included.

Note: in the database records, we used “post secondary” rather than “post-secondary,” so be sure to exclude the hyphen in your search.

2. Once the results come up, you can click on each line to see the detail on only that record.

3. To do another search, be sure to return to the main search page by clicking here.

Best Practices: Electronic Transcript and Verification Portals guideline

Guide to Credential Evaluation
BEST PRACTICES: ELECTRONIC TRANSCRIPTS AND VERIFICATION PORTALS

Introduction

The Best Practices: Electronic Transcript and Verification Portals guideline has been prepared by the TAICEP Digital Student Data (DSD) Task Force which was created to: examine DSD practices from the credential evaluator perspective, provide usage guidelines for the credential evaluation community, and advance professional standards. In this Guideline the Task Force has developed brief descriptions of and general best practices for three current models to access or verify documents. Task Force members will continue to review and revise this Guideline as methods for issuing, verifying, and retrieving educational documents electronically and digitally evolve. Ultimately, this document is intended to be used in conjunction with a mapping tool, currently in development, to assist evaluators with identification of key information and trusted sources at the country level. We will keep you posted on our progress.

TAICEP Digital Student Data Task Force, June 2019

Overview

A primary responsibility for credential evaluators is to ensure the educational documents being reviewed are official and authentic (see Guide to Credential Evaluation).

Today, technology has enabled faster delivery and verification of documents via electronic notification and digital transmission and access. Multiple models now exist for official document retrieval either directly from the issuing institution or through an outsourced third-party entity. This Guideline provides a broad overview of three of the most common electronic models along with important considerations for the evaluator to keep in mind.

Explanatory Notes

This is a Cambridge Certificate of Education (CCE) Statement of Results for Advanced Subsidiary Level (AS Level) and Advanced Level (A Level). Cambridge Assessment International Education reserves the right to amend the information on this statement. Results will be confirmed by the issuing of a certificate.

GCE AS Level results are reported on a 6-point scale of grades A (1), B (2), C (3), D (4), E (5), and F (6) only, grade A being the highest and grade F the lowest. The content and difficulty of a GCE AS Level examination is equivalent to the first half of a corresponding GCE A Level.

GCE A Level course are reported on an 8-point scale of grades A (1), A* (2), B (3), C (4), D (5), E (6), D* (7), and E* (8), grades A* being the highest and grade E* the lowest. Under some circumstances, where a candidate has achieved for a GCE A Level but does not achieve a grade E* or above, a CCE A Level grade (A to E) may be reported in the syllabus.

The best Advanced Subsidiary or A Level performance is shown in the result which was awarded for the syllabus.

UNGRADED indicates a standard below that required for grade A for story AS Level and grade E for story A Level.

NO RESULT indicates that a result cannot be issued because of absence for the whole or part of the examination or because of a decision not to issue a result for any other reason.

PENDING indicates that a result cannot be issued at present but will follow in due course.

The assessment of a language syllabus Speaking component is shown as 'World Class in Speaking', 'Very Good in Speaking', 'Good in Speaking', 'Satisfactory in Speaking', 'Basic in Speaking', or 'Unsatisfactory in Speaking'. Candidates who are unsatisfactory in the Speaking component will have no report of their speaking performance printed on their examination certificate.

The Percentage Uniform Mark for GCE AS Level and GCE A Level is provided in addition to the grade for the syllabus. This is a percentage mark used for external syllabuses to show whether the candidate's performance is close to the top, bottom, or middle of the grade. A Percentage Uniform Mark is not provided where the candidate's result is 'Unsatisfactory', 'Pending', or 'Not Attempted'.

Only syllabuses in which GCE AS Level grade A to E and GCE A Level grade A* to E are achieved will be reported on this certificate.

Hiring someone for a job from India or an Asian country? Are you sure his degree is authentic? Is the person really qualified to do the job?

Do you know that hundreds of candidates from countries like India, Pakistan and Bangladesh forge their educational records? Since these countries have a large number of fake universities and colleges, verifying educational credentials becomes very difficult, time-consuming and expensive.
