Destapan corrupción de ex rector de Universidad en Masaya

Vendía títulos en 5 mil dólares

* Escándalo en Universidad Cristiana Autónoma de Nicaragua abarca estafa a los docentes con supuestos préstamos
* Involucrado personal de áreas administrativa y académica. Todo se detectó cuando un falso título llegó al CNU

MASAYA

Venta de títulos universitarios hasta en cinco mil dólares, falsificación de documentos y estafas contra los docentes, son algunas de las irregularidades descubiertas en la Universidad Cristiana Autónoma de Nicaragua (UCAN) regional Masaya, realizadas por el ex rector Miguel Canda García, en contubernio con todo el personal que laboraba en las áreas administrativa y académica.

Félix Noel García, Presidente del Consejo Directivo Universitario de la UCAN con sede en León, denunció que las anomalías las empezaron a descubrir desde hace 35 días, cuando llegó al Consejo Nacional de Universidad (CNU) un título falso de la carrera de Administración de Empresas para que fuera autenticado.

"El título falso estaba a nombre de [redacted] mado por el rector Miguel Canda y la directora del Departamento de Registro, Ana Membreño. Las autoridades del CNU nos alertaron porque la regional tiene tres años de operaciones en Masaya, por consiguiente no tiene ninguna promoción de graduandos", explicó García.

Al parecer, [redacted] se encuentra en Estados Unidos, ya que las autoridades de la UCAN en León recibieron una notificación de la empresa SpanTran Educational Services, Inc. ubicada en Houston, Texas, donde les hacía conocer la inexistencia de la emisión del título después del proceso de verificación que la empresa realizó.

Ni siquiera es estudiante

Como respaldo del título falso, también fueron encontradas notas de cuatro años de estudios con hojas membretadas, firmas y sellos, del supuesto licenciado, graduado el 18 de marzo de 2004, que ni siquiera es estudiante activo de la UCAN Masaya. Otra de las irregularidades fueron las firmas, ya que la UCAN sólo extiende títulos con la firma de la rectora general de la universidad en León, Jeannette Bonilla; de la directora nacional de Registro, Jovania García, y de Manelli Bonilla, Secretaria General.

En las investigaciones descubrieron que el ex rector Miguel Canda estaba tramitando otro título falso de la misma carrera a favor de Manuel Adán Castro por la suma de cinco mil dólares, también ajeno a la universidad. Como prueba, tiene en su poder una carta donde el solicitando habla pagado 2,500 córdobas en cinco abonos.

Despiden a 23, incluyendo docentes

"Miguel Canda tenía una banda organizada que le cubría las espaldas. Es nuestra obligación destapar y desenterrar todo a la luz de los medios de comunicación para que otras universidades no sean víctimas del comerciante de educación superior, del cual desconocemos su paradero", afirmó
