The Original Intention of Verification System

The Original Intention of Verification System

Verification of China Higher Education Qualification Certificate

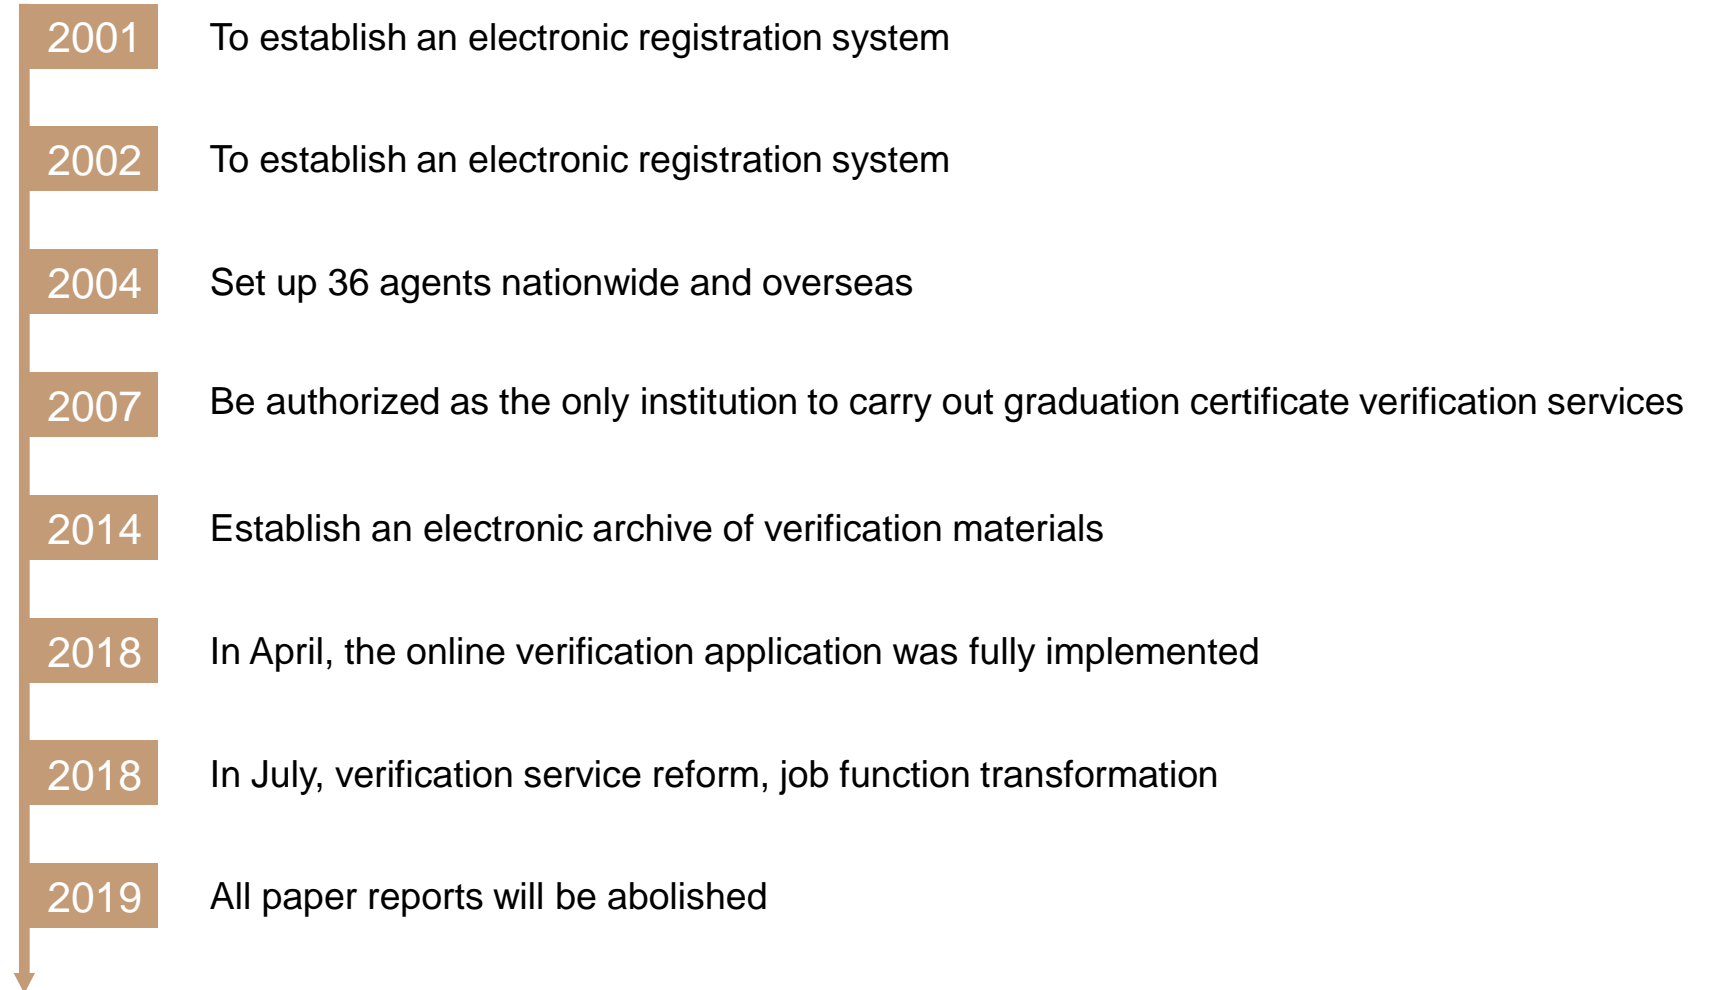

In 2001, the Ministry of Education enacted the Interim Regulations on Higher Education Qualification Registration (Jiaoxue [2001] No.4)

CHSI website (<http://www.chsi.com.cn>) is the only MOE-designated website for qualification verifications.

Verification of China Higher Education Qualification Certificate

Reform in 2018

From July 1st 2018, we've made verification of higher education qualification certificate free of charge.

Qualification certificates granted after 2002 (included) that had been registered into database of higher education student information system, should apply for online inquiry and verification, and for those paper verification will not be accepted or issued.

Standardization and Mechanisms

Electronic Registration and Verification Process

Electronic Registration And Verification Process

Improve Electronic Registration

2010, a real-time registration of qualifications was launched.

2008, in-school student annual registration was implemented.

2007, the student admission information was required to be registered

2004, college enrolled freshmen list was checked with admission roll.

2001, implemented digital registry system of higher education qualification certificates

In 2005 the Ministry of Education promulgated the Regulations on Regular College Students (MOE Order No. 21).

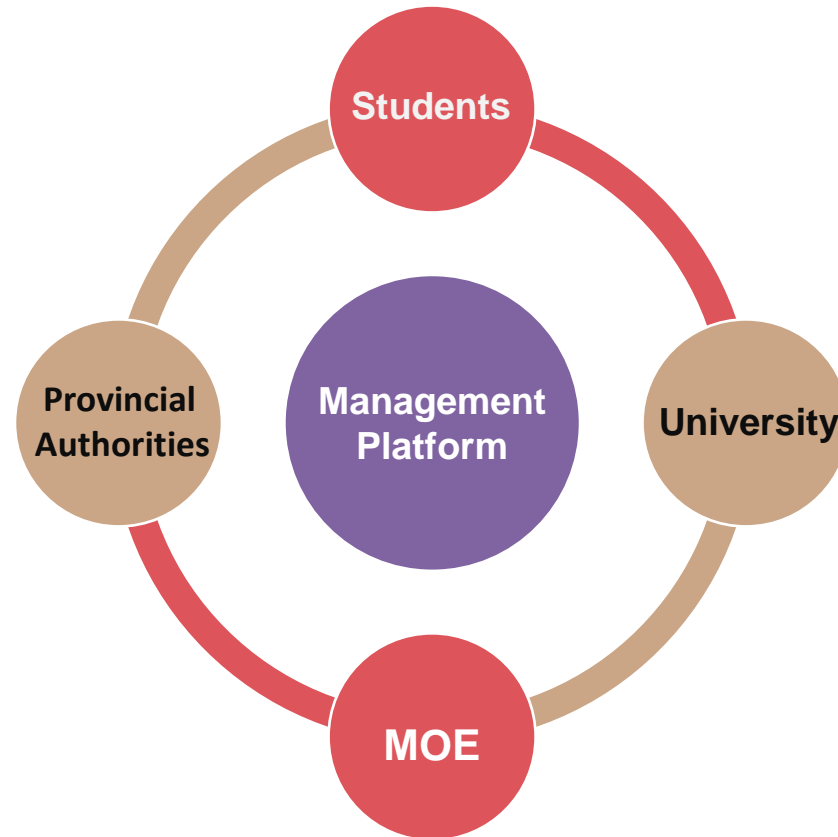

In 2014, the Ministry of Education issued the Measures on the Online Registration of Student Records and Qualification Certificates of Higher Education Institutions.

In 2016, the Ministry of Education revised the Regulations on Regular College Students (MOE Order No. 41)

Electronic Registration And Verification Process

Improve Electronic Registration

By June 2020, over 200 million certificates issued since 1991 and 50 million in-school student records were registered.

Electronic Registration And Verification Process

Verification Service

Meet the requirements of the validity of qualification certificate in terms of promotion, further studies, recognition of professional qualifications.

Provide multiple formats of reports such as PDF, print and e-mail version to meet the needs of different application scenarios.

Provide permanent online verification and QR code verification to facilitate institutions checking verification results.

Verification may correct some early content errors on qualification certificates.

Authentication and Evaluation Process

Step 1

Collection and Authentication of Academic Documents

Examine and authenticate documents to ensure that they meet WES' documentation standards

Step 2

Credential Analysis

Ensure that the documents contain critical and complete information to determine the education level, accreditation status and program structure

Step 3

Evaluation and Comparative Analysis

Review documents holistically against WES policies to produce an accurate report

WES Documentation Requirements

1. Academic Transcript (CHN)

These are Chinese official documents issued by the institution you attended that list all subjects taken and grades earned for each semester of study. The documents must include the official stamp of the designated office (e.g. office of academic affairs, office of archives) at the institution you attended.

2. Academic Transcript (ENG)

These are English official documents issued by the institution you attended that list all subjects taken and grades earned for each semester of study. The documents must include the official stamp of the designated office (e.g. office of academic affairs, office of archives) at the institution you attended.

For Self-Study Programs, Examination Results issued by the provincial Self-Study Examinations Guidance Committee are required in place of an Academic Transcript. The Examination Results must include the official stamp of the Self-Study Committee or the Self-Study Office.
